In January 2007, Michael J. Biggar and Tyler W. Higgins co-founded Orchard Partners in order to combine and leverage their own expertise and reputations under a common platform. The formation of Orchard Partners represents the joining together of two of the Bay Area's most respected industry veterans, each of whom has more than 25 years of real estate experience.

Michael J. Biggar, Managing Partner

Mike Biggar began his career in Bay Area commercial real estate in 1981. Prior to co-founding Orchard Partners in 2007, Biggar co-founded Orchard Investors, LLC with David J. Brown in 1994 to continue the investment and development activities of its predecessor company, Orchard Properties. With Orchard Investors, Biggar was responsible for acquisition, development, financing, and operation of over 1.5 million square feet of R&D/office product and over 360 acres of land.

Prior to forming Orchard Investors, Biggar ran the Silicon Valley office of a major regional commercial real estate brokerage firm. He also served as an Industrial Broker and Industrial Group Head over the course of his nine years with the firm. Previously, Biggar was Development Manager at Holvick deRegt Koering, supervising the development of the HdK's Silicon Valley R&D/Industrial projects.

Biggar received his bachelor's degree from Stanford University and his MBA from the Stanford University Graduate School of Business. Biggar was the 1997 President of NAIOP-Silicon Valley Chapter and currently serves on its board of directors. He is an active member of the Policy Advisory Board of the UC Berkeley Fisher Center for Real Estate and Urban Economics, and early in his career was a two-time recipient of the San Jose Metropolitan Chamber of Commerce/Association of South Bay Brokers award as Outstanding Industrial/R&D Real Estate Broker.

Tyler W. Higgins, Managing Partner

Tyler Higgins is a fifth generation native of the Bay Area, and has been involved with commercial real estate since 1986. Prior to co-founding Orchard Partners, Higgins was Managing Director of AMB Property Corporation (NYSE: AMB), where he was employed for 16 years. While at AMB, he participated in its IPO in 1997 and served in a variety of capacities, most recently as Managing Director of its West-Central region and as a member of its Investment Committee. Prior to this position, Higgins directed the firm's acquisitions program and investment strategy for North America.

From 1990 through 2006, Higgins acquired or structured joint ventures to develop over 100 projects totaling more than 45 million square feet of commercial space and exceeding several billion dollars throughout the United States. In addition to transactions in other markets, he acquired AMB's industrial and R&D portfolio in the Bay Area and many of its projects located on the West Coast, Texas, and Chicago. Before joining AMB, Higgins worked with The Shidler Group where he acquired and financed properties throughout the United States.

Higgins graduated with a BA in Economics from the University of California at Berkeley. Currently, Higgins is a member of the Urban Land Institute (ULI) and serves his council, IOPC--Red, as its Chairman. Higgins is a past director of the National Association of Industrial and Office Properties (NAIOP) San Francisco chapter, and is a past president of the Belden Club of San Francisco. Higgins has served as a member of several boards, and is currently involved with several charitable and conservation-oriented causes, as well as Scoutmaster of Troop 219 in Lafayette.
